AIM Federation: Small schools, big opportunities

Thursday 6th November 2025

Dear Parents and Carers,

We are delighted to let you know that our school will be taking part in Odd Socks Day on Monday 10th November as part of Anti-Bullying Week.

Odd Socks Day is a fun and light-hearted way to celebrate what makes us all unique. By wearing odd socks, children are reminded that differences should be respected and celebrated. It's also a great opportunity to start conversations about kindness, respect, and standing up against bullying.

On this day, we ask that children come to school in their usual school uniform, but with the simple addition of a pair of odd socks. The brighter and more unusual, the better!

There is no cost involved, and children do not need to buy new socks – just wear whatever mismatched pair they already have at home.

Throughout the week, we will also be holding activities and discussions to help pupils understand:

- Why it's important to treat everyone with kindness.
- How to celebrate individuality.
- What to do if they are worried about bullying.

We hope you will support us in making Odd Socks Day a memorable and meaningful event for the children.

Thank you for helping us promote a safe, happy, and inclusive school environment.

Warmest regards

Shefa Roberts
